

University Of Washington Scavenger Hunt

From somerwhereinparticular.com

Directions: Find as many of these places as you can and take a picture of your group (or a selfie of you) standing in front of the landmark.

__ 10 Points: The old observatory dome on the Theodor Jacobsen Observatory across from the Burke Museum

__ 10 points: Statue of George Washington west of Red Square

__ 10 Points: The Broken Obelisk sculpture in Red Square

__ 10 Points: Group shot on front steps of Suzzallo library

__ 20 Bonus Points: Photo inside the Graduate Reading room on the second floor of Suzzallo. Shh! It's supposed to be silent at all times. To get there, just go inside and climb the the spiral stone stairs to the second floor. You'll feel like you're at Hogwarts!

__ 10 Points: Bust of Edvard Grieg in Grieg Garden, North of Suzzallo and Southwest of Thompson Hall

__ 10 Points: McMahon residence Hall

__ 10 Points: Husky statue outside the HUB

__ 20 Bonus Points: Bowling Alley in the basement of the HUB

__ 10 Points: Distance shot of Husky Stadium

__ 10 Points: Raven Brings Light to this House of Stories art installation in the ground floor lobby of Allen Library North

__ 10 Points: Drumheller Fountain

__5 Bonus Points: Duck or Goose swimming in Drumheller Fountain

__5 Bonus Points: Picture of Mount Rainier taken near Drumheller Fountain--this only works if the weather cooperates and, as locals say, the mountain is out.

__ 20 Points: Columns inside the Sylvan Grove near the computer Science Building

__10 Points: Atmospheric Sciences, Geophysics Building (ATG) which is connected to Johnson Hall. These are the people who measured the "Beast Quake." If you aren't a local or a Seahawks fan, you may have to look that up.

So how did you do?

100-180- Honorary Dawg! Deck yourself out in your best purple and gold and take a stroll on the Burke-Gillman Trail.

50-100 Husky Pup! Well done. Go treat yourself to some Bratwurst at Shultzy's on The Ave (University Way.) Be sure to get a lemonade.

0-50 Sleepy Seattleite! The campus is built on a hill, right? And it was probably raining. I hear ya. You should probably go get a coffee and spend the afternoon browsing through the University Bookstore. They validate for parking.

From somewhereinparticular.com